JOB ADVERT

CHILD AND FAMILY SUPPORT WORKER

We are: Gosden House School, a special educational needs school based in extensive grounds in Bramley in Surrey. Our children's ages range from 4 to 16 and have learning and additional needs (MLD). Children attending Gosden House School have an Education Health Care Plan.

What we need: We are looking for a Child and Family Support Worker (CFSW) who will work directly with children and young people, families and school staff, to provide responsive pastoral care for our vulnerable and complex children and young people. The successful candidate will have experience in either schools and/ or children's services, and will be confident with trauma informed approaches. The role involves safeguarding and pastoral support, liaising with children and young people, parents and carers, school staff and external agencies. This is a key role within the school and reports directly to the Head Teacher.

Are you....dedicated, hard-working, flexible, committed, kind, creative and resilient?

Do you....have experience working with children and families facing complex challenges?

We can offer you:

- A wonderful working environment, fantastic grounds, a brilliant, dynamic team to work with and the most eager to learn and happy children.
- A commitment to CPD and leadership for all
- A strong team ethos and a commitment to staff wellbeing
- A unique learning environment, reflecting our commitment to creative learning
- The chance to work in an Ofsted rated Outstanding school, and the opportunity to be part of a dynamic and friendly team of staff
